Rainbow Rehabilitation Centers Announces the Grand Opening of Birchwood House

YPSILANTI, Mich., Jan. 5, 2010 — Rainbow Rehabilitation Centers strives to deliver the right care at the right time in the right place. It is a top priority to continually improve its facilities for clients, visitors and employees. Birchwood House, Rainbow's newest customized home, opened in December 2009 in Ypsilanti, Mich.

Birchwood House features more than 4,000 square feet of living space and was designed specifically for Rainbow's clients. The house is fully handicap-accessible and features six large bedrooms, three accessible bathrooms with roll-in showers, a large open kitchen with stainless steel appliances and more. The house also has an oversized garage to allow residents to load and unload from vehicles shielded from the weather.
